Businesses from across Gloucestershire are already signing up to take part in the county's first charity street velodrome challenge.

Cheltenham and Gloucester Hospitals Charity is staging the event on the Promenade in the town on Friday, July 12, to raise money for the CT Scanner Appeal.

Among those who have pledged its support and entered a team is Midwinters Solicitors, in Crescent Place.

It is joining headline sponsor Brewin Dolphin and firms including Creed Foodservice, Abbey Business and Spirax Sarco which have all signed up.

The pursuit racing challenge is open to teams of four to challenge for the best time around the track on the day.

The money from the event will go towards the £1.2m appeal to buy new CT scanners and mobile digital X-ray machines for Cheltenham General and Gloucestershire Royal hospitals.

Gareth Gregory, partner at Midwinters, is taking part alongside fellow keen cyclists Mark Holland, Chris Vevers and Francis Russell.
